

CPAA FINANCE COMMITTEE – CHARTER

Purpose and Function

The purpose of the Finance Committee is to assure oversight of CPAA finances in furtherance of Cascade Pacific Action Alliance (CPAA) stated goals and objectives. The Finance Committee provides an important accountability role so CPAA fiscal systems run smoothly in accordance with funder requirements and with full transparency. Fund development tasks for the CPAA and are not within the scope of work for the Finance Committee.

The presence of a fully engaged Finance Committee means that the CPAA is committed to ongoing stewardship and is actively building and preserving the financial resources necessary to support the accomplishment of its mission, both for the short and the long term. The committee should be populated with individuals with backgrounds in finance, accounting, executive leadership and sustainability and be as cross-sectoral as possible.

Appointment, Terms and Meeting Frequency

The Finance Committee shall consist of three to five members that shall serve one-year terms. There will be no term limits. The CPAA Board Treasurer is the chair of the Finance Committee.

Committee members are appointed by the CPAA Board once a year or more frequently, if needed to fill a vacancy. Committee members may be nominated by a CPAA board member. Committee members may include qualified non-CPAA Board members; however, at least 50% of the committee members must be CPAA Board members.

The Committee shall meet at least once per quarter.

Roles and Responsibilities

Chair Roles:

- Serve as the principal liaison between the committee and the CPAA Board;
- Work with CHOICE staff to set an agenda for each committee meeting;
- Ensure complete handouts and reports are prepared and sent to committee members in advance of Finance Committee meetings.
