Parent Education & Home Visiting

Program	County	Funding Sources	Funding Opportunities	Current service providers, staffing model and gaps	Number served	What is the unmet need?	identified: Referrals?	Challenges
Children with Special Health Care Needs nurse Age Range: 0-18 Eligibility: Children at risk of having serious developmental, behavioral, or emotional conditions or who require health related services of a type and amount beyond what is generally required.	Cowlitz	DOH (MCH Block Grant) and other unknown sources	No anticipated changes/ unknown	Health & Human Services CYHSCN Program, Progress Center and ARC of Cowlitz Co. serve this population			Referrals from Hospitals, Progress Center, Providers, Self, School, Medicaid

	Lewis	Maternal and Child Health Block Grant, 30% requirement	Unknown - block grant	Lewis County Public Health and Social Services, gap in number of nurses available to offer services through Public Health. Part-time public health nurse who also works in Communicable Disease - position is currently vacant, LCPHSS is seeking to fill this position	15-20 clients served	Families unaware of service, underserved populations in outlying areas of the county	WIC, hospitals, providers, Head Start, etc.	County is geographically widespread; it is difficult for families with limited resources to access these services.
	Mason
	Pacific	Maternal Child Health Block Grant	Unknown	0.16 PHN Time and 0.03 of Admin staff support. We have limited funding so most of the work we do with families is referrals only, we have not done any type of home visiting with program. Education around referrals, assessment to assure the families have their needs met. Would like to have more time to do a more comprehensive assessment and to be able to provide more wrap around services for assuring clients have a medical home that meets their needs. I feel this program does not offer enough time for staff to adequately do outreach, assist with some type of child find, and may be missing a large part of the population that may find this service useful.	Currently have about 26 active on caseload	This program had a greater participation when families were able to qualify for open medical coupons. Now that this is not an issue, families may not see us as a necessary part of their lives, particularly if the child is older. Families with newly diagnosed issues or with infants with a birth defects are more likely to seek this program out and sign up for services. I would like the ability to track all children with special needs that might find this service useful. I do not believe we have any type of reach for children that would qualify for the program due to potential behavioral issues.	Most referrals are from Birth to 5 programs, Occ from neonatal hospitals; WIC; schools; occasionally providers
